

In this report, RPTA summarized the analytical test results regarding the presence of Bisphenol A in recycled paperboard and linerboard. The report also discusses the test results in relation to intake values promulgated by the European Food Authority."

Members can obtain a copy of the entire report by contacting the office and requesting a copy of report # 13-.04.18.

Non Members - For further information regarding this report, other RPTA activities, the RPTA Protocol, or RPTA Membership please contact the RPTA office.